Individuals at their precinct caucuses can submit resolutions. When a majority of the caucus adopts a resolution, it advances to the Organizing Unit convention for consideration to send to the State Platform, Issues, and Legislative Affairs Committee. Resolutions having support from at least five Organizing Units drawn from at least two Congressional Districts may be selected for consideration at the State Convention (for inclusion in the DFL Ongoing Platform or Action Agenda).

The DFL supports campaign finance reform efforts, including the expectation that candidates seeking the DFL endorsement seek public financing and adhere to local, state, and federal campaign finance limits.

You may add a brief explanation or your two or three strongest supportive points here.

Sticking to campaign spending limits ensures that candidates do more than raise money – they spend the bulk of their time engaging with voters in their communities and across the state, putting people back in the center of our politics. Public financing democratizes campaigns and ensures that campaigns are not just funded by the wealthy.
